

CODE OF CONDUCT – COACH

- Actively discourage foul play and unsportsmanlike behaviour by players.
- Seek to maximise the participation and enjoyment of all players regardless of ability.
- Show concern and caution towards all injured players. Follow the advice of a doctor or Sports Trainer to the letter when determining when an injured player is ready to recommence training or playing.
- Teach players that an honest effort and competing to the best of their ability is as important as victory.
- Maintain appropriate, professional relationships with players always. I will not use bad language or harass players.
- Maintain a through knowledge of the laws of the game and keep up to date with current coaching methods, maintain or improve your current accreditation level.
- Always consider the health, safety and welfare of players.
- Teach young players to realise that there is a big gap between their play and the professional game, do not coach them as if they are professionals
- Ensure that your coaching reflects the level of the competition being played, do not be a “win at all cost “coach.
- As a coach always conduct yourself in a manner and in all situations, that shows leadership, respect for the game of Rugby League and respect for all those that are involved in the game – the players, officials, the fans, the parents and the referees.
